

1st of May,
The international Workers' Day

The first day of May is a day that resonates with echoes of worker struggle and solidarity. International Workers' Day is observed on this day to honor the workers' battles of the past and inspire those of the future.

International Workers' Day is also a day to honor the contributions and achievements of workers around the world.

It is time to recognize the importance of labor rights and fair working conditions for all. This day is a reminder of the ongoing fight for workers' rights and the need for solidarity among workers around the world.

Let us also denounce on this day all forms of discrimination suffered by workers who fight for their rights and freedoms.

From EDC, let us take this opportunity to celebrate the hard work and dedication of European Dockers and Port Workers, and Workers around the world, who continue to fight for a fairer and more equitable society.

Let us also not forget that the first victims of war are people and workers, so let us take advantage of this day to call for peace in the world, respect for human rights and the freedom of self-determination of populations.

Let's celebrate the indomitable spirit of workers!

Let's act together!

Happy International Workers' Day!